2010 A Pride Odyssey
June 18th - 27th

Paint your toenails, get out your boas, don your Levis and leathers, and get those dykes on their bikes because Pride is here again! Join in events all over town to celebrate PRIDE from Identity’s booth at Anchorage Market and Festival to Four A’s Drag Queen Bingo, Bear Tooth’s mini film festival to special events at Mad Myrna’s and Kodiak Bar and Grill, the parade and Pride on the Park Strip to after Pride celebrations at Kodiak and Mad Myrna’s. Let’s celebrate being GLBTQA!

Grand Marshal Elvi Gray-Jackson

Our 2010 Pride Parade Grand Marshal is the beautiful Elvi Gray-Jackson. She is a familiar face to the GLBTA community and has demonstrated again and again that she talks the talk and walks the walk of defending the under dog and working for equality for all. We have loved seeing her walk in Pride parades, attend Pride Fest, and vote for GLBT equality. Congratulations, Elvi Gray-Jackson! Thank you for all you do for the GLBTA community. We love you!

Drag Queen Bingo
Alex Barros
June 24th • 7:00 • 9:00 PM • Snow City Café

You are invited to the 3rd annual Drag Queen Bingo fund raiser to benefit 4A’s Anchorage Mpowerment Project. Stopping the spread of HIV and reducing rates of unprotected sex among young gay/bisexual men continues to be a challenge for many HIV prevention programs. The Anchorage Mpowerment Project AMP is a community level HIV prevention intervention designed to reduce the frequency of unprotected intercourse among young gay/bisexual men, ages 18-29, by mobilizing them to support each other about safer sex and to build a stronger, healthier community.

The Four A’s provides safe and sane activities for this peer to peer intervention in order to build a strong peer group with the skills to discuss HIV openly. The project led by Teddy Jones and Waylon Waddell, hosts 4-6 social events, 2 volunteer opportunities, and one HIV education session per month.

You may see our group if you go to a community event. They will be the guys handing out condoms and providing HIV testing. This group is one of the best in the country at what they do, and we are very proud of the fact that last year we won the Peter Dispirito award for service to the GLBT community.

Question: When is a drag queen not a drag queen?
Answer: When she becomes a political statement?

After last year’s summer of hate it is time for a little love. This event will feature Daphne DoAll La Chores as our hostess, performance by the beautiful Ashley, prizes, games, 50/50 raffle, songs and a lot more fun. We plan to have a great time playing bingo at this all ages event but, the best part is enjoying the costumes worn by the crowd, so be sure to dress for the occasion. Last year we filled the Snow City Café to above capacity so this year we have closed the sidewalk to add more seating and performance space. Four A’s staff will be on hand and in drag to welcome you and provide bingo sheets at a cost of $15.00 or, if you come in drag, $10.00. This buys you 3 games of bingo, several group games, performances, and a lot of fun from 7-9 PM. The doors open at 6:00 PM.

Please come out and support this event and let the greater Anchorage community see that we are not afraid and we will not go away. We feel that filling the streets with fun loving community minded drag queens seems like the best answer to those who try to spread intolerance in our community.

Wear Your Pride

Sizzling hot with a hint of sexy dark side is how you’ll look in this year’s Pride t-shirt - unless you want to look kitten soft and innocent, in which case, I’ll tell you that’s how you look just to sell more t-shirts. These way cool t-shirts are short sleeved and black with the 2010 A Pride Odyssey logo on the front. They cost $20 (unless you are a volunteer and get a $5 discount) and come in sizes XS to 4XL. You can purchase your shirt at GLCCA (336 East 5th Avenue), Drag Queen Bingo, Weekend Market, Pride on the ParkStrip, and other Pride events about town.
As Americans, it is our birthright that all people are created equal and deserve the same rights, privileges, and opportunities. Since our earliest days of independence, our Nation has striven to fulfill that promise. An important chapter in our great, unfinished story is the movement for fairness and equality on behalf of the lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender (LGBT) community. This month, as we recognize the immeasurable contributions of LGBT Americans, we renew our commitment to the struggle for equal rights for LGBT Americans and to ending prejudice and injustice wherever it exists.

LGBT Americans have enriched and strengthened the fabric of our national life. From business leaders and professors to athletes and first responders, LGBT individuals have achieved success and prominence in every discipline. They are our mothers and fathers, our sons and daughters, and our friends and neighbors. Across my Administration, openly LGBT employees are serving at every level. Thanks to those who came before us—the brave men and women who marched, stood up to injustice, and brought change through acts of compassion or defiance—we have made enormous progress and continue to strive for a more perfect union.

My Administration has advanced our journey by signing into law the Matthew Shepard and James Byrd, Jr., Hate Crimes Prevention Act, which strengthens Federal protections against crimes based on gender identity or sexual orientation. We renewed the Ryan White CARE Act, which provides life saving medical services and support to Americans living with HIV/AIDS, and finally eliminated the HIV entry ban. I also signed a Presidential Memorandum directing hospitals receiving Medicare and Medicaid funds to give LGBT patients the compassion and security they deserve in their time of need, including the ability to choose someone other than an immediate family member to visit them and make medical decisions.

In other areas, the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) announced a series of proposals to ensure core housing programs are open to everyone, regardless of sexual orientation or gender identity. HUD also announced the first ever national study of discrimination against members of the LGBT community in the rental and sale of housing. Additionally, the Department of Health and Human Services has created a National Resource Center for LGBT Elders.

Much work remains to fulfill our Nation’s promise of equal justice under law for LGBT Americans. That is why we must give committed gay couples the same rights and responsibilities afforded to any married couple, and repeal the Defense of Marriage Act. We must protect the rights of LGBT families by securing their adoption rights, ending employment discrimination against LGBT Americans, and ensuring Federal employees receive equal benefits. We must create safer schools so all our children may learn in a supportive environment. I am also committed to ending “Don’t Ask, Don’t Tell” so patriotic LGBT Americans can serve openly in our military, and I am working with the Congress and our military leadership to accomplish that goal.

As we honor the LGBT Americans who have given so much to our Nation, let us remember that if one of us is unable to realize full equality, we all fall short of our founding principles. Our Nation draws its strength from our diversity, with each of us contributing to the greater whole. By affirming these rights and values, each American benefits from the further advancement of liberty and justice for all.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, BARACK OBAMA, President of the United States of America, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and the laws of the United States, do hereby proclaim June 2010 as Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Pride Month. I call upon all Americans to observe this month by fighting prejudice and discrimination in their own lives and everywhere it exists.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this twenty-eighth day of May, in the year of our Lord two thousand ten, and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and thirty-fourth.

Pride Parade
June 26th 11:00 AM

Come to the Pride parade! March, ride in a float, or loudly cheer on those fabulous folks who do! The parade begins at 11:00 at 6th and D Street. We will proceed west on 6th Avenue and turn left on K Street, right on 8th Street, left on L Street, left on 10th Avenue and end at Delaney Park near the flagpole in time for the start of our festival on the park strip. Let’s turn up and show some fabulous, finger snapping, glittery pride! If you have not yet signed up to enter your float, please visit our AlaskaPride website at: http://www.alaskapride.org/links.htm and download the parade application. We want you!

What’s Happenin’ at PrideFest

We have new booths and activities this year that are geared to the children in all of us. No need to look for them—they will be right in the middle of things. Get silly and have fun folks!

We’ve got a hang-out booth for teens. No older adults and no babysitting of the small fry allowed. Strictly a space for teens to kick back on the bean bags and chill!

For the little ones we have a very inexpensive Kiddie Carnival.

And, of course, the best logo on the blackest t-shirts will be at the Identity Booth. There will be stickers and t-shirts, and hopefully, some rainbow boas, too, for you to purchase!

It’s in the large middle section of the Park Strip and we will have lots of entertainment and booths open till 6pm this year. That’s one hour longer than in the past.

Main Stage Entertainment

Co-hosting the main stage activities are two Empresses; Alaska’s current reigning Empress 37, Miss Meme Jenkins, and former Empress 11 of Southern Nevada, Ginger Grant, along with Mad Myrna’s Friday Nite Diva Show host, Miss Paige.

We’ll kickoff PrideFest with the National Anthem and State song followed by proclamations and Invocation by an Alaska Native elder. After that, it’ll be one great performance after another! You won’t want to miss a minute! There’ll be something for everyone. The fun starts at noon on the Park Strip at the big main stage!

This year’s performers include a wide array of talent, including some of past year’s favorites and some new faces too! Divas Ashley, Jovy and Delicious will strut their stuff for your pleasure. Underground Dance Company will wow you with dance performances. The Lu Lu Small Band will get you dancing on the grass and more live music from local solo artists and bands will keep you dancing.

Food

We’ve got lots of food!!!! We’ve got fried food, barbequed dogs and burgers, we’ve got reindeer sausages and we’ve got trendy quesadillas, gyros and still more...yep...we scored on the food this year!

Activities

Bungee Run - $5 for three runs.

Hours and hours of fun, you and your friends can try and make it to the end of the bungee run -- but you won’t! Padded harnesses hold you back and will knock you off your feet!

Bucking Salmon - $5 for three tries.

Alaskans can sometimes have a difficult time satisfying their appetite for excitement. You can now “Ride the Red” where you can ride our fully functional mechanical bull transformed into a custom made Chinook salmon. Now there’s a fish story that you have to see to believe.

Sumo Wrestling - $5 for 2 people to play 3 bouts.

Belly up to this one! The Sumo Wrestling Suits let everyone experience authentic Sumo Wrestling first hand. Adults try to pin their opponent.

Obstacle Course - $1 per run.

This is an inflatable course of obstacles for you to navigate. Test your level of butch or show off for your honey.
Thank You Sponsors

Our gratitude and appreciation to the following businesses and organizations for sponsoring PrideFest this year:

Identity, Inc.
Four A's
Imperial Court of All Alaska
Mad Myrna’s
The Raven
The Kodiak
Pride Foundation
ACLU
Humpy’s/Sub Zero
Alaskan’s for Benson
Castle MegaStore

These organizations have supported us. Let’s support them, too. We are still looking for sponsors. If you are interested in helping to sponsor PrideFest or want to see a current list of sponsors (NorthView has to go to print before all the sponsors have signed up) and their sponsorship level, please go to: http://www.alaskapride.org/sponsors.htm.

Volunteers Needed

Melissa Bartley

Be more involved and have more fun by volunteering to help with Pride. We need folks to help with the parade on Saturday and all of our events, such as selling t-shirts, set-up and take down of the vendor booths, working in booths, and much more. Volunteers get to be helpful, meet exciting new people, and walk away with a sense of community and the positive feeling of knowing they shared their time and talents to make a really special event even better. They will also get a $5.00 discount on Pride t-shirts. Folks can contact me directly at: melissabartley@hotmail.com or via the website at: http://www.alaskapride.org/index.htm

Advocacy Team

Identity’s Advocacy Team remains very busy with several presentations a month educating, creating understanding and developing alliances to expand the GLBT voice in our Alaska community. Contact us via email at advocacyteam@gmail.com, or by phone at (907) 929-4528. We look forward to hearing from you soon.

Youth Activities

Pride Prom
Julia Jokela
Identity Youth Representative

The bass vibrated the walls and strobe lights flashed on the dance floor. This was the scene that greeted LGBT youth and their allies on Friday, April 16th as they arrived at the Kincaid Chalet for Pride Prom 2010. The youth planned and set up the event with help from supportive adults and their effort paid off. The dance was a huge success and everyone had a great time dancing to popular music hits, many by request to the live DJ. The theme that was chosen was “Gender Bender” and quite a few of the youth dressed up in clothes usually worn by the opposite gender. At one point in the night there was voting for a Royal Pride Court based on how loud of a cheer the people nominated received. Two young men in drag were voted as the pride queens and they both received gift certificates. The dance went off as planned and many youth are already interested in helping out in planning next year’s prom.

Youth Drop-in at GLCCA

Teens reign supreme at the Gay and Lesbian Community Center of Anchorage (GLCCA). Well, they do on the first and third Saturdays of each month from noon to 3:00 pm, anyway, when the doors are locked to all but GLBTQA youth, ages 13 to 19 years, and staff who have undergone background checks.

The Youth Drop-in program has been going for several months now and the youth coordinator, Johnathan Jones, notes that Youth Drop-in is growing and hopefully will soon be busy and big enough for us to begin dedicating every Saturday at GLCCA from noon to 3:00 to it.

Teens and their friends gather to hang out together, talk with each other and responsible adults, play games, engage in other fun activities and, of course, eat! Eat! And, eat some more!

If you are a teen, grab a friend or two and drop-in. Or, come all by your lonesome and make some new friends. You are wanted, welcome, and can relax in a safe, accepting, and hassle free environment. Oh, yeah, and you can eat, too.

Youth drop-in Donation Requests

The youth at Identity’s Youth Drop-in Program have a wish list. The little darlin’s are wantin’ some new and different computer games, board games, more money for more pizza, and an X Box 350. I am not entirely sure what this is but I am told it is lime green in color and something every teen absolutely needs.

If treating the kids to something on their wish list is on your list of things to do, you can bring the item to GLCCA (336 East 5th Avenue) or visit Identity’s website: http://www.identityinc.org/ and click on “Donate Now.” The site gives you the option of designating where your donation is applied.

More Benefits for GLBT Federal Workers

In time for Gay Pride month, President Obama ordered executive-branch agencies to extend to employees’ same-sex partners the same benefits provided to their opposite-sex partners, to the extent allowed by law. On June 2, 2010 President Obama said “…I am proud to announce that earlier today, I signed a memorandum that requires executive agencies to take immediate action to extend to the same-sex domestic partners of federal employees a number of meaningful benefits, from family assistance services to hardship transfers to relocation expenses.”

Show Your Pride

Celebrate! Let’s meet at the Pride parade to cheer on the marchers proud and loud. Without any rest, it’s on to PrideFest. Let’s have a blast! Show Anchorage that you are here, queer, and really quite dear.
The T in GLBT

Trans Notes
Anja Gensel

We are doing a float for Pride this year and the first ever “Miss TransAlaska” will be riding on it. The theme is “The T is Not Silent.” We will be selling Smoothies at PrideFest.

We are having a Garage Sale fundraiser towards the end of June. Watch the website for details: http://www.transakpipeline.com.

YWCA is hosting “Transwomen of Alaska” in their “Opening Minds and Hearts” luncheon series on 16th of June. Kelly, Michelle, Mehgan, and I will be speaking.

I just came back from Chicago where I was at the BE-All Gender Conference, taping the 3rd, 4th and 5th episodes of “Good Morning, TransAmerica!” TG talk show podcast, which is now available from iTunes.

Upcoming segments and shows include: Trans Life in Australia; A visit to the government-funded New South Wales Gender Centre in Sydney; Interviews with Dr. Doug Osterhaut, Dr. Toby Meltzer, and Dr. Joel Beck; “Hormones 101” with endocrinologist Dr. Fred Ettner; The Be-All Gender Convention of Chicago; New and emerging non-surgical procedures; A look at permanent makeup and its applications in transitioning, and a whole lot more.

We announced plans at Be-All to host “Northern Exposure 2012” Alaska’s very first International Gender Conference. We have the help of the organizers of both Southern Comfort and Fantasia Fair, plus the interest of some of the world’s leading transsexual surgeons and care providers. We hope this will thrust Anchorage into the world spotlight, and bring hundreds, if not thousands of TGs to our city for the event, to be held at a soon-to-be announced date in Summer 2012.

Transgender Passport Policy Change

Coinciding with Pride month, the U.S. State Department announced a pro transgender policy change – sexual reassignment surgery is no longer required in order for transgender individuals to change the gender on their passports.

The new policy allows transgender people to change the gender on their passports with a certification from an attending medical doctor that the applicant has undergone appropriate clinical treatment for gender transition without specifying what that treatment needs to be.

The new policy and procedures are based on standards and recommendations of the World Professional Association for Transgender Health (WPATH), recognized by the American Medical Association as the authority in this field, the department said.

Woo Hoo!! Congratulations to the trans community!!

National HIV Testing Week 2010
Chrissy Bell

National HIV Testing Day on June 27th is all about knowledge. Knowledge of what the disease is and how it’s transmitted; knowledge of your own HIV status; knowledge of the tools you need to remain negative; or knowledge about how to get into services if you’re positive.

In Anchorage, we actually extend the day into a week of opportunities for you to receive free HIV testing and to encourage your family, friends, and loved ones to do the same. Knowing your HIV status is a vital step in maintaining a healthy community. By promoting HIV testing as an essential component to an individual’s health, it means that those who are HIV positive get into services much earlier and are more likely to enjoy a good quality of life and prevent unknown transmission of the disease to others. In addition, it’s an opportunity for you to receive important information and tools about risk reduction so you know how to protect yourself and your loved ones from transmission.

All tests are free, use an oral swab (which means no blood), and provide results in 20 minutes. There will be several opportunities for people to get tested in Anchorage, however, one of the most fun will be at PrideFest on the Parkstrip on Saturday, June 26th. From 1-5 p.m. the Four A’s and the Municipality of Anchorage will be providing free HIV testing and free gonorrhea and Chlamydia testing to anyone who asks. Just find the Four A’s booth.

For a complete list of places in Anchorage and Juneau where you can receive a free HIV test this week and throughout the year, visit www.alaskanaids.org or call (907) 263-2050.
What is Adopt-A-Day?

Adopting a day is one way in which you, personally, can help the doors at the Gay and Lesbian Community Center of Anchorage (GLCCA) stay open. GLCCA is run completely by volunteers but it still costs Identity approximately $50 a day to operate because of expenses such as rent, utilities, insurance, and so forth. Adopting a day means that you pay $50.00 to Identity, the cost of operating GLCCA for one day. We put up a sign in GLCCA recognizing that you adopted that day and we list your name in NorthView.

Adopting a day is easy to do. Simply visit www.identityinc.org or call or go by GLCCA (929-4528 • 336 East 5th Avenue, Anchorage) and tell the volunteer you want to adopt a day. It is that easy. Won’t you adopt-a-day today? Okay then, how about tomorrow?

Do-It-Yourself Helpline

Do you want GLBTA resource information but have no need of a sympathetic ear? Now you can access the resource manual yourself on Identity Inc.’s website at: http://www.identityinc.org/Resources/Resource_Manual-new.shtml. The manual provides GLBTA contact information for such areas as crises lines, health care, entertainment, spiritual, youth, transgender, and much more.

Full Service Helpline

If you prefer to speak with a live person, you can still telephone the Helpline from anywhere in Alaska and a friendly and sympathetic Helpline worker will be happy to chat with you. The Helpline is staffed seven days a week from 6 pm – 11 pm.
907-258-4777 - in Anchorage
888-901-9876 - toll free outside Anchorage

Thank you to the Pride Foundation for funding the printing of our new Helpline Manuals and Statewide Outreach Advertising.

Help the Helpline

Like the U.S. Marine Corp, Identity is looking for a few good men and women to staff the Helpline for one or two nights per month. The Helpline phone is forwarded to your home or cell phone during your shift so you can go about your normal life while remaining available should anyone call. If you are interested in volunteering, you can pick up a volunteer application at GLCCA (336 East 5th Avenue • 929-4528) or go to Identity’s website at: http://www.identityinc.org. We would love for you to join us as a Helpline volunteer.

GLBTA Bowling League

Mark your calendars for this year’s bowling season. We start September 12th, the first Sunday after Labor Day, so there is still time to put a polish on your bowling ball or get some rhinestones glued to your shirt and shoes. We would love for you to join us. For more information, please contact Steve at ssach@gci.net or 258-5317.

ICOAA College Scholarship

The Imperial Court of All Alaska has opened their Scholarship Program for the 2010/1011 academic year. Details and applications are available online at: http://imperialcourtalaska.org/aboutus_scholarship.htm or can be picked up at GLCCA (336 East 5th Avenue). Scholarships are awarded to Alaskan residents based upon economic need, academic achievement, leadership ability, and contributions to the GLBT community. Preference is given to members of the gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender, and allied (GLBTA) community. The deadline for completed applications is July 31st, 2010. Don’t let this great opportunity pass you by.
